

Please do not overturn New Jersey's Do Not Call law. We are bombarded throughout each and everyday with solicitations through other means such as: our regular mail, emails, pop-ups on the pc, tv, radio, newspapers and billboards...we don't need to have businesses calling us at home all the time too. I purposely will not buy from a business if they call me at home.